How can I choose a major?

Talk to your college advising office to learn about a broad range of resources that can help you choose a major. Graduation Planner can help—use Graduation Planner to explore degree requirements for different majors or minors, and create several plans to compare.